OSI Comments re DDCI inquiry re Gen. Precision Contract

25X1A9a [redacted] has discussed this matter with

25X1A9a [redacted] (OSD) & [redacted] (SD), 25X1A9a

whose divisions seem most concerned.

Reply recommended — polite refusal; to be worded about as follows:

"The OSI has already completed its external research plans for FY 1963, but is always glad to talk to the personnel of companies working in important areas like aerospace. Some of the biographic sketches are interesting, but in general they show no unusual personnel resources. No information is given on the R&D facilities available at General Precision, thus the Office cannot make a definite decision on possible use of Mr. Pyle's company. In addition, the OSI already has or is developing satisfactory contract support in the aerospace and electronic fields mentioned in the biographic sketches, and its contractors have the necessary personnel, facilities, R+D experience, and intelligence background.

The Office would like to file the information supplied by Mr. Pyle so that when additional contract and consultant support is needed, the resources of General Precision can be considered along with those of other potential contractors and/or consultants."
